As a member of PilieroMazza's Government Contracts Group, Anna assists with supporting the legal needs of businesses that contract with the government. She works with the Group to help government contractors maintain compliance with the myriad of laws and regulations governing federal contractors, including matters involving bid protests, contracts and agreements (teaming, joint venture, and mentor-protégé), as well as eligibility for small business procurement programs.

Anna earned her law degree from The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law, where she was Media & Technology Editor (2019-2020) and Staff Editor (2018-2019) for The Ohio State Business Law Journal. A recipient of the Stephen F. Vogel International Fellowship Award, Anna studied international and comparative law in Brazil at the University of Brasília Law School Summer Exchange Program. She graduated cum laude from Ohio University with a B.A. in Political Science and Psychology.
