Art brings to PilieroMazza an extensive background in construction law and complex commercial litigation. Businesses in the construction sector rely on his counsel on a broad range of legal issues related to construction matters, including contractual disputes, defects, and impact claims. Art also represents clients in real estate transactions.

Notable casework includes:

- assisting a general contractor in defeating a $5 Million claim while also winning an award of over $1 Million;
- representing a contractor in a multi-million dollar claim related to a major roadway project; and
- providing counsel in a multi-faceted dispute examining proper ownership of numerous senior facilities and the legitimacy of the HUD financing used.
