Fady is a trusted corporate attorney with deep experience guiding clients through multi-million-dollar mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions, and other game-changing deals.

Fady represents public and private companies, private equity firms, and portfolio companies in complex buy-side and sell-side transactions across industries such as government contracting, technology, manufacturing, healthcare, and consumer products. Clients rely on him for more than legal expertise. They count on his ability to keep momentum, anticipate challenges, and negotiate terms that protect value and unlock opportunities.

From the first conversation to the final signature, Fady delivers practical, business-focused solutions that align legal strategy with each client's unique vision. He manages every stage of a transaction: structuring deals for maximum advantage, leading due diligence, negotiating and drafting critical agreements, and ensuring smooth post-closing integration.

Owners and executives describe Fady as steady under pressure, relentlessly prepared, and committed to outcomes that position their companies for growth or a successful exit. Whether it's selling a family business, acquiring a strategic target, or navigating a private equity investment, Fady's mission is simple: help clients achieve their goals, protect their legacy, and get the deal done right.

Fady speaks fluent Arabic.
