Jackie represents clients in a wide variety of government contracting and general business issues. She represents clients in bid protests at the Government Accountability Office and the Court of Federal Claims, size and status protests before the Small Business Administration, and appeals before agency Boards of Contract Appeals. Jackie counsels clients on FAR and small business regulatory compliance issues as well as claims, requests for equitable adjustments, and contract disputes with the government and with teaming partners. She also assists clients in investigations related to government contracts, such as False Claims Act investigations and suspension and debarment proceedings.

Jackie reviews and drafts contracts and agreements including teaming agreements, joint venture agreements, mentor-protégé agreements, and corporate governance documents. Additionally, she advises on state and local certification issues, including DOT's Disadvantaged Business Enterprise program.
