Morgan is a corporate attorney who advises clients on middle-market to multi-billion-dollar business transactions, including negotiating complex mergers and acquisitions, minority investments, carve outs, divestitures, and restructurings. She represents a diverse group of clients, including private equity sponsors, strategic investors, and emerging startups seeking practical, business-focused guidance.

Known for her collaborative approach and attention to detail, Morgan delivers strategic counsel tailored to each client's objectives. She regularly works with companies helping them navigate high-stakes deals with efficiency and clarity. Additionally, her background spans multiple industries—including consumer products, media, and healthcare—giving her a versatile perspective on the transactional challenges clients face.
