Sam represents commercial businesses in a wide range of government contracting and litigation matters. His practice includes representing federal contractors in bid protests before GAO and COFC and in size and status protests before SBA. He is experienced in government contract disputes and business torts. Additionally, he advises clients on matters of regulatory compliance arising under the FAR and SBA regulations, including recertification, CPARS, security clearances, implementing affiliation mitigation or avoidance plans, and maintaining size and socio-economic status. As a member of PilieroMazza's Claims & Appeals Team, Sam counsels clients on claims, appeals, and REAs.

In 2018, 2019, and 2020, Super Lawyers® recognized Sam as a "Rising Star" for his work with government contractors. He also earned JD Supra Readers' Choice Top Author 2020 Award as one of their top 10 authors in government contracting.
