RFP Tools and Resources

The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) issued a Request for Proposals for the fourth generation of its broker and leasing support services contract, GSA Leasing Support Services (GLS) Plus. The new contract provides earlier customer engagement, increased pre- and post-lease award services, and the introduction of time and cost saving technologies. GLS Plus is expected to generate approximately $129 million in rent credits to tenant agencies and significantly reduce lease cycle times by eliminating workload redundancy. The deadline for submitting proposals is Monday, September 9, 2019. More information can be found here.
